

Ritual & Connection

Chilean poet and artist Cecilia Vicuña's works often occupy the space between ritual and performance. In her performance, "I am just a little drawing," Vicuña draws a single line on the skin of members of the audience that connects each person with the next. In doing so, she creates a physical and emotional connection not only between herself and her audience, but also between each person present.

Prompt: Write about a ritual that you partake in, whether religious or secular, traditional or brand new. These can be small, daily actions.. If you would like to work on fiction, focus on a ritual your character might participate in.

Time: 15 minutes
